OUR MISSION

Thailand's growing economy and the speed at which the development is paced have largely drawn attention of the international community in terms of business opportunity which are in the form of public procurement projects of various sizes and significance. Despite the financial aspect of this niche market, such opportunity, however, are not readily accessible to sellers, manufacturers or investors around the world who may have positively been attracted, due to various difficulties and factors such as language, laws and procedures and the lack of understanding of the local operations, people or business landscape.

To address such demands and embrace the opportunities, Veisz Alliance models itself as a platform to facilitate the access of international players to the available business opportunity. This is achieved by actively being a reliable hub of information and local business partners and to work hand in hand with them in maximizing business goals. Being integrated with all rounded services, we are able to maintain and achieve timely and satisfactory quality of services for our clients.

OUR CLIENTS

Our clients comprise high-calibre business corporations, public and government organizations as well as entrepreneurs from diverse fields of business from around the world. Identity of some of our clients are not disclosed publicly due to confidentiality policy.
